Mission Statement

Booker T. Washington Community Center, Inc. is a community-focused, non –profit organization that aims to equip youth (ages 5-17) and their families with the necessary skills to be positive and productive members of the community. Providing an approach to physical, emotional, and educational health through after school, summer and nutritional programs, we work with our youth and families by offering the tools to support and enhance their capacity to develop and strengthen positive behaviors and encourage healthier life choices.

Brief History

B.T.W. school building was purchased from the Board of Education by Enid Youth and Recreation (EYRC). EYRC changed the name to Booker T. Washington Community Center, Inc. for the purpose of meeting Educational and Social needs of all ages.
